This Sunday's Readings First Reading Isaiah 62:1-5

God delights in Israel and will rejoice as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 96:1-2,2-3,7-8,9-10 A song in praise of God's marvelous deeds

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 12:4-11 All spiritual gifts originate from the same Spirit.

Gospel Reading John 2:1-11 Jesus performs his first sign at a wedding feast in Cana.

Background on the Gospel Reading This Sunday we begin the liturgical season of Ordinary Time.

For many Sundays in this lectionary cycle (Cycle C), our readings will be taken from the Gospel of Luke.

Occasionally, however, we will read from John's Gospel. This is true of today's Gospel reading, which describes the beginning of Jesus' ministry and his first miracle.

To situate today's reading within the context of John's Gospel, we note that John's report of this event follows Jesus' call of his first disciples. John tells us that Jesus and his disciples were invited to this wedding at Cana, as was Jesus' mother, Mary. There is no parallel report of this miracle at Cana in the Synoptic Gospels.

In the Church's liturgical history, the wedding feast of Cana is closely associated with the baptism of the Lord and the adoration of the infant Jesus by the Wise Men. In this context, the sign Jesus performs at the wedding feast is celebrated as an epiphany or a manifestation of Jesus' divinity.

Yet awareness of Jesus' impending passion and death is ever present in John's Gospel. Even in this report of Jesus' first sign, the language used anticipates Jesus' passion. When Jesus says to his mother that his hour has not yet come, he protests against her wishes in language that John will use again when reporting Jesus' Last Supper with his disciples. When introducing the story of Jesus washing his disciples' feet, John writes that Jesus knew that his hour had come. In John's Gospel, Jesus is very much in command and aware of all that is to happen to him.

Here, as elsewhere in John's Gospel, Mary is not mentioned by name, but is referred to instead as the mother of Jesus. Mary is influential in Jesus' first sign. She will also be present at his Crucifixion, a witness to the final manifestation of his divinity.

John's Gospel describes seven signs that indicate Jesus' identity to his disciples. John never speaks of these signs as miracles because their importance is not in the deed that Jesus performs but in what these deeds indicate about Jesus' identity. Here, as when John describes the other signs, the disciples are said to begin to believe, but no mention is made as to whether the other wedding guests are even aware of what has happened.

Marriage and wedding feasts are metaphors used in Scripture to describe God's salvation and the Kingdom of God. Here at the beginning of Jesus' public ministry, John's Gospel seeks to establish that Jesus is going to re-interpret and fulfill Yahweh's promise to Israel. Jesus establishes the New Covenant. A hint about what this New Covenant will be like is made evident in the deed that Jesus performs. Asked to do something to address the awkward situation that the absence of wine at a wedding feast would create, Jesus' miracle produces vast quantities of wine—six jars holding thirty gallons each are filled to overflowing with choice wine.

This lavish response to a simple human need is a vision for us of the abundance of God's kingdom. It challenges us to respond generously when confronted with human need today. We respond as best we can, fully confident that God can transform our efforts, bringing the Kingdom of God to fulfillment among us.

The St. Mary's Card Guild Do you make any resolutions or goals for the new year? You can add a fun and attainable goal this year - join the St. Mary's Card Guild. Informational meeting is rescheduled for January 16 after Mass in the hall. We are anxious to begin our card ministry, so please join us to peruse examples of cards I've made and to have questions answered. Bring your calendar so we can plan our first session. While we are anxious to begin our card ministry, the meeting will be postponed in case of inclement weather. If you have any questions or have conflicts and cannot attend the meeting, please contact me at educater6330@gmail.com or 660-413-2244. Thank you, Johnna

St. Joseph school: St. Joseph Catholic uses GoGuardian in an effort to keep your children safe while online. If a student is signed in to their @school.stjoe.church account, GoGuardian will monitor their activity no matter where they are logged in. This program will flag anything that is deemed medium/high severity and teachers and administration will get a notification of the activity. There have been times this year where we have had instances of students abusing the Technology Agreement while at home.

St. Mary of the Angels PSR: This Sunday, January 16th is the next PSR Mass. Liturgical Roles are as follows: Servers: Gamble Gooch, Seth Farnen, and Rafe Vanderpool Lectors: Nick Pennington, Penelope Banko, and Blayke Ewigman Greeter: Juliette Banko Offertory: Kane Stallo, Reis Ewigman, and Eli Allen

Fr. McCartan School: Catholic Schools' Week We will kick-off Catholic Schools' Week with a special Mass for all students and their families at the 10:45 Mass on Sunday, January 30th. Mass will be followed by an Open House at the school, where the 7th and 8th graders will be presenting a "Saint Walk." Come learn about the saints they have chosen to be their mentors as they decided on Confirmation names
